

APPA Welcomes New Tribal Issues Committee Chair

The American Probation and Parole Association is proud to announce that Viteolee Marconi of the Colville Confederated Tribes has taken on the role of Tribal Issues Committee Chair.

Viteolee served for 14 years in the United States Marine Corps. He worked for the Colville Tribe as a patrol officer and was dual commissioned as an Okanogan County Sheriff. Today, he works as the Healing to Wellness Court Community Supervisor within the Colville Tribal Court.

Viteolee was raised on the Colville Indian Reservation and has five siblings. He is a proud father of six children with his wife, Sonya.

We are honored to work with Viteolee Marconi on tribal issues throughout our membership, and we know he will serve the committee well. Welcome Viteolee!

